*Today's Distinction of Leadership:
 Leaders are Wise Thinkers.*

This day brings fond memories of personal and collective achievements. Knowledge is a gift that you give to yourself. However, if what you know is not shared then others will not benefit. Give yourself freely to the world and submit to your vision. Live to make a difference! Continue to stand for what you "know" is "right" even when you find that you are alone. And always remember...when you step off into the void of darkness, you will either land on solid ground or learn to fly—risk, risk, risk!!
